by LIAISON

The First and Only Centralized Application Service (CAS™) for Graduate Engineering Education Programs

EngineeringCAS™ is a community of like-minded graduate engineering education leaders who work together to drive the industry forward. Through participating in the Centralized Application Service (CAS) Community, members gain access to

- Knowledge. The CAS for graduate engineering education programs features visual application and enrollment trend reports to facilitate strategic admissions decisions.
- Connections. The CAS expands members' applicant pools with branded program listings, multi-channel ads and targeted drive-to-apply campaigns.
- Inspiration. CAS Community members learn what works — and what doesn't — from peers who are facing the same obstacles and working toward similar goals.
- Resources. The CAS Community regularly publishes magazines, ebooks and white papers and hosts focus groups, webinars and in-person events to facilitate the sharing of industry insights.
- Support. The CAS technology is complemented by application processing services and applicant support that saves member institutions time on manual administrative tasks.

When it's more challenging than ever to achieve your enrollment goals, EngineeringCAS enables you to take back control for program success.

“ EngineeringCAS really took a lot of weight off our shoulders. Even despite COVID-19, our admission process didn't slow down at all. It was business as usual because our admission committees could continue to meet whether the faculty was on campus or working remotely. They could still evaluate and score applicants and continue the admission process. We were also able to reach out immediately to applicants in the CAS to convey pertinent information as well as to proactively address any concerns that they had.”
